This time the family especially father and mother quite a lot persons coming to JEFI. It means the coming persons (wants to study in Japan) are very serious persons that need a lot of informations regarding studying in Japan.

The List (名簿) of each (participants) Booth listed about 30 persons (average) making consultation to each booth. This is also a proof that visitors are very serious looking for a school and or education information of Japan.

The program itself on the 7th JEFI was done smoothly without problem.

Starting with an Introduction of each schools participants around 5 minutes.

After that was the Short Speech and Opening by the Representative from Japan Embassy (Mr. Masaki Tani). Proceeded by the ceremonial presentation of 110311 origami [Care for Japan] by The Representative of Komunitas Origami Indonesia, Ms. Maya Hirai, to Mr. Masaki Tani. And short speech by Ms. Maya Hirai, also comment by Mr. Masaki Tani after receiving the Giant Origami, presented to the people of Japan and the next day, Oct. 17. 2011 (Morning 10 o'clock), was sent to the Embassy of Japan, Jakarta.

The booth of demonstration making Origami is very crowded with some visitors coming to have their own experience trying making Origami. Therefore the origami attraction will be proceed to the 8th JEFI next year 2012.

The next program was cultural event such as Taiko Dance and cosplay. During the event, we are also making Shodo and presented free to the visitor. The maker of Shodo was our Pandan College Japanese teacher that has her own certificate of learning Shodo in Japan.

The 7th JEFI is successfully done and at the end everyone happy going home with all of informations regarding education in Japan. The booth of JASSO and Japan Embassy were also given by us freely during the event.

The next JEFI will be held on February 26, 2012 in Sari Pan Pacific Hotel, Jl. MH Thamrin No.6, Jakarta Pusat, Indonesia from 10:00 upto 18:00.

Hopefully next time more participants will coming to Jakarta giving more informatios about study, learning and life in Japan for Indonesians students.

The successful event will not happen without the full support of The Embassy of Japan (in Indonesia) that helping us very much and also JETRO Jakarta.

Thank you so much for all the people in Indonesia and media supported us during the 7th JEFI.

See you on the 8th JEFI in Jakarta Pusat.
